We count our majority in the Aeree, Democrat is elected Representative. Senate at ten.

The House of Representatives, as far as heard from, stands 56 Democratic to 37 Opposition members. The counties or representative districts not reported are Carter, Calloway, Clay and Owsley, Lawrence, Livingston and Marshall, Muhlenburg, and Whitley, entitled to seven representatives, all of whom were Democrats in the last House: We have but little doubt that we have lost the member from Whitley, and this leaves a majority on our side of the House of 24, which was precisely the Democratic majority of last session.

The Democratic majoritity on joint ballot in the Legislature elect will range from 28 to 34enough for all purposes, among which are tle election of a United States Senator, a Public Printer, a Librarian, and the officers of both houses, together with a just and proper appo t onment of the State for representation in the Legislature.

To show the strength of the Republican party in Kentucky, we will state that at the crat. late election Cash. Clay received one vote for Governor, and J. R. Whittemore twelve votes for Congress, in the Tenth District.

Elections were held on Monday (1st) in Kentucky, Alabama, and Texas. Other elections will be held this year as follows: On the first Thursday of August in Tennessee; on the second Thursday of August in North Carolina; on the first Monday of October in Georgia and Mississippi; on the third Tuesday of October in Minnesota; on the first Monday (7th) of November in Louisiana; and on the first Wednesday of November (2d) in tween Chrisman and Anderson. [From the Lexington Statesman.] The Late Canvass.

The late Congressional canvass in this District was in many respects the most remarkable ever made here. Success has fallen with the party to which public upinion had previously conceded it; yet the combination of local results which enter ed into this total, are very widely different from the fig. res of the most sagacious. Capt. Wm. E. Simms has been elected by a fair majority, but we venture to say no man in the District c n show figures made previously to the election which approximate those which now empire to this result. The Opposition was never better or ganized, more active, determined, and better pro vided with the munitions of war, than in this con-test. Money was used with lavish expenditure, and every advantage taken which local ascenden cy and superior strength at the polls could give. In the selection of judges of election, and their predetermined rillings upon the qualifications of electors, a settled purpose to succeed at the sacrifice of right and justice, was clearly exhibited. In the brute force and intimidation employed at precincts where little or no resistance was appre hended, was evinced the same resolution to conquer, regardless of the means. The canvags was in other respects, too, most skillfully managed by our opponents. With no great show of exertion, and no manifestation of confidence, their whole party was active and sanguine. The Democracy anticipated no such struggle, and had well nigh awakened too late to save the result. There no upathy among our friends, and no lack of deep interest in the elec i m of their candidate, but an unfounded confidence in their own strength and a distrist of the latent energy and will of their opponents impaired, to a great degree, their usually efficient organization. We trust this narrow ese pe may be a warning, which will not be permitted to fail as a besson for future guidance. Let this canvass be an admonition against the opecation of similar causes in coming contests.

We have no apologies to make to the Democracy of the District for the vote of this county The majority, it is true, disappointed our expecta-tions, and exceeded that pledged to our friends. As compared with fora er race-, this city and county have not done so well as heretotore, but such a re olt indicates rather the ext aurdinary effort of the Opposition than a dereliction of duty on the part of the Democracy. It sometimes requires as strenuous exertions to resist large gains by the enemy, as to make inroads upon their ranks It is always easier to swell our own majority to innexpected figures, than to reduce that of a party in un overwhelming ascendency. And if the vote of Favene, Scott, Jessamine, Woodferd, and Franklin shows a gain to the Opposition, while the lower end of the district has more than redeemed its pledges, it cannot thence be inferred that the Democrats in these counties have failed in the most untiging efforts. The time and loyal Democrats of Scott worked with a zeal and de ermination which their reduced majority does not indicate to one nn'a nili r wi h the opera ions of the enemy in that county. The Democracy of Jessamine did their whole duty and deserve credit for the result, unexpected as it was. 'The Dem t Woodford never worked more earnestly. In Fayette county the majority would have even exceeded what it is had not our friends worked with extraordinary energy.

The battle of the Opposition was made in these J. E. Gibson.

Democrats in SMALL CAPS, 24; Opposition with a resolution and zeal we have rarely seen equaled. They were well supplied with "material arguments" and used them with a lavish hand These are plain facts with our friends elsewhere may as well understand at once. The election of Capt. Simms was won by the exertion of his friends, and not mare by the efforts of those in Harrison and Nicholas than by the activity of those in this and the adjoining countries. while we would detract nothing from the credit of those friends whose large vo'e came so mex-pectedly to the rescue, we would have no man think because the enemy made inroads upon us n this part of the district our friends have been

Marrison and Nicholas,

We understand that the Democracy of these two counties challenge the most searching investigation of the poll books in refutition of the ind'ess charge of frand and importation made ly the Opposition. The majorities, somewnat large than generally expected, were brought about by fair effort, and substantial changes produced by the irrefutable arguments addressed to the intelligent yeominry by our note standard bearer. The ery of importation will be rung through the District, but without facts to sustain it, made to substantiate the allegation.

It is said the late Opposition candidate for Congress has, since the election, visited Harrison Floyd and Johnson—Sam. Salvers, Dem.

Franklin—John Rodman, Opp.

Fayette 2—Thos. H. Clay and R. A. Buckner, both which the large majority was obtained against him. Our friends nevite the most searching scrutney of Heming and Rowan 2-11. B. Dobyns and H. G. the books, and stand prepared to defend the gality of every Democratic vote recorded upon them. It is true the majority of the judges election were Democrats but their rulings can be fully justified by law This fact, however, can be no just cause of complaint, since in every county i their own partisans sat as judges upon the qualifi-cations of the electors, and in every case gave to their own party the benefit of every doubt that While a discussion of the appliances brought to bear in the late canvass would be by no means a task from which we shrink, t ink it in better tiste for the Opposition to submit with becoming grace. The result is satisfactory to the Dumocracy, and with it we are willing to let the pist be forgotten. But if brand is the cry, there are many incidents of the cinvass in this part of the district which will be regited. Our opponents may as well remember that the least said the better for them. Lex. States.

Old Harrison and Nicholas,

In the desperate struggle—that has just passed, the Democracy and old line Whigs of these glorious old counties have crowned—themselves with unfading glary. When the struggle was most desperate; when the hour seemed darkest; like a rock amid the tempest they stood firm and imwahle. When the note of battle sounded, every min was in the ranks with armor on. When the tattle was ended Sam found there his grave. A more glorious fight was never made; more glorious victory never won, and patriots truer and uobler never struggled in the cause of the Union and Constitution.

We are proved to ascribe to them all praise, and as a test mony of the appreciation of their brave and noble efforts in the canso of our country, the Democracy of Bourbon, at an early day, will give in honor of old Harrison and Nicholas, one of the most rousing Harbeeues ever given in this county.-Paris Flug.

TOn the day of the election here in Somerset, a man by the name of Harry Lynn, struck a man named John Hall on the back of the head with a brick, and mashed his head, made the blood fly out of his ears and run out of his mouth. lle was not expected to live for some twelve hours or more. On Thesday morning he was a little better, and some think he will get well, but it is entirely uncertain. Lynn is under arrest, and will undergo an expunination. Somerset American, 3d.

Well Bone for the Eighth.

The returns from the Eighth District show the election of the gallant Capt. Simins to Congress over Harlan, Opposition, by sixty six majority. The Ashland District has done gloriously, showing that she still remains true to the principles of Democracy at a time when the Opi ing every nerve to gain it. Well done lor i the Eighth .- Mountain Dem.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT .- Mrs. McLeod was se verely burned at the St. Francis Hotel, on Tursday night last, about half-past eight o'clock, by the breaking of a lamp containing burning fluid. Paducah Herald, August 5.

TWe are informel, by telegraph, that our gallant and gifted young friend, Col. John A. Prall, as sound a Democrat and as true a man as ever lived, is elected to the State Senate from Bourbon and Bath over his competitor, Brutus J. Clay. This is a great triumph. It is one of which we are proud, and over which we rejoice with exceeding great joy. Bourbon was attached to Bath, by an insernpulous nyposition legislature, for the express purpose of neutralizing the Democratic majority of the latter. This will be better appreciated, when it is made known that while Bith was right along side of Fleming, Nicholas, Montgomery, and Morgan, it only touched Hourbon at a single point, and that a person cannot ride from one of the counties in this district to the other without passing through one of the other inties. Yet, with one of the other counties the district would be Demneratic; with Bourban it was Opposition; and the district was formed. Opposition Senators have been elected twice with Opposition Senators have been elected twice with-out serious apposition. But there's an end on't. The poisoned chalice is brought to their own lips. They have fallen by their own weapon. Bath and Bourbon have a Democratic Senator. All things work together for good. We complained when the district was formed. It is all right now.

With any other arrangement, Bourbon would now to gerrym inder this portion of the State brings

The Opposition candidate to represent this disct in the Senate, at the last e'ection, was Brutns J. Clay, a man of immense wealth, great pride, and a fair share of umbition. He entered into the canvass with commend the zeal an linllex title determination. He would be elected. That he had determined upon; and never did man strive harder to accomplish his purpose. Every influence was brought to bear, every means was resort. ed to; no stone was left miturned by which his lection might be promoted. He was backed by his party friends with primptness and resolution; terwards cured, even by the use of this remedy, they stood by him till the last shot was fired; they fell by his side. On the other hand was Col Prall, one of the people, young, modest, retiring; with no broad acres, no lat negroes, no bank stock, nothing but the strength of his position and his continuous trength of his position and his continuous formula failed, and is safe party friends, and encouraged only by a patriotic determination to do his duty to himself and to his smooth pebble from the brook, met his doughty antigonist. He vano ished him on the stump, and individuals of high standing throughout our He bravely encountered him everywhere. He havely encountered him everywhere. He havely encountered him everywhere. They have tought bravely and well without reward or hope of reward. Their hour has come. Trey are to be represented by one of their own honotive they have had in the Legislature for long years. We congratulate Col. Praft. A bright future, we trust, awaits him. He occupies a proud position. His triumph is a glorious one. He has nobly earned it. He deserves anything to which he may see proper to aspire.

The Lexington Observer and Harrison County.

The Observor says that the vote for Captain Simms in this enunty must be explained. We must cheerfully hasten to afford the uniable editor of that journal the explanation which he so per-emptorialy demands. We will waive the object tion that his demand is so occumptory. Here it is Secondly.—The integrity of the Democracy of Harrison was proof against the thousands of dnl-lars which Mr. Harlan's triends sent into this county to corrupt it. The Opposition had unt money enough in all their pockets and confers to purchase the incorruptible and invincible Demoeracy of Harrison. They were not for sale.

Thirdly.—A large number of intelligent and reflecting members of the Opposition in this county, dissati fied with the v. scillaring course of their leaders, who not long since affiliated with venture to say that no serious attempt will be the Northern Ab litionists, and now pretend to coale-cc with the most ultra Southern fire eaters. voted the Democratic ticket, resolved hereafter to act with the party which, at least does not change its name and principles every six months. to inspect the form dable list of bolters from his ranks which our poll books present
Fourthly.—The Democracy of Harrison both

Harrison, and she being justly proud of the pluck, the gallentry, and ability exhibited by her cirtusgnished soo, in the late cruvass, gave him the rousing majority which has so astounded his enemies, as a testimonial of her parental regard and approbation.

We hope this very ample explanation will be fully satisfactory to the Observer and its friends. Cynthiana Aje.
